Mr. Lopez-Cantera,

While we do appreciate your seeming efforts to get to the bottom of this, the website does not contain a copy of Judge Barber's original application for the district court judicial seat.

We are requesting a copy of the application that Judge Barber filled out to apply for this position. Not the question and answers in the hearings before the committee.

Chapter 119 is applicable and if you believe it is not, then give us the application and supporting documents under our FOIA request. Bickering over whether the request can be released under Chapter 119 or FOIA is immaterial in light of the seriousness of the misrepresentations made by this applicant.

We are certainly ready to sort your contention that Chapter 119 is not applicable to our request in a lawsuit. However, we believe that this will shed more publicity on this matter than your commission would desire.

What is material is that what we are requesting is within the public records act, whether it be under State or Federal public records act.

Judge Barber knew exactly what he was doing when he provided the false statement on his application.

Sincerely,

Joshua Statton

Chapter 119 of Florida Statutes do not apply to the Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Commission of the 115th Congress. Additionally I'm sure you are aware that all Nominees to the Federal Bench have their Judiciary Committee Questionnaires posted on the the Judiciary Committee's website. That being said, if you would like to share your "serious allegations" your words not mine, I will forward to the appropriate offices in DC as I stated in my previous email.

If there are misrepresentations by a nominee as you allege, I would take all appropriate action to ensure they are exposed. If you choose not to share your allegations I will consider this matter closed and urge you to communicate with the United States Senate Judiciary Committee going forward.

Thank you
Carlos

This is an official Chapter 119 request. You are required to release his application pursuant to Chapter 119. We, too, have an appropriate D.C. office that we can send our serious information to.

If you refuse to release this information, we will file suit to get the information. There is a lie made by this applicant on his application for this life time appointment. He needs to be held accountable and we will make sure that he is. We have already contacted D.C. regarding this matter. Your reaction of putting our concerns of how serious our allegations are inside of quotes is telling, and we believe that D.C. will not look upon this favorably.

So, again, we ask you, if we tell you exactly the Question to which this applicant has lied, will you, then, agree to release, today, the entirety of his application along with all supporting documentation?

Sincerely,

Joshua Statton

We received your name as the contact person from Mr. Leonard Collins.

We have information that leads us to believe that Thomas Barber, who is a judicial nominee for the Middle District of Florida, has lied on his application for the judicial nomination.

Please provide us with a full copy of Thomas Barber's application as you have it, pursuant to Chapter 119 Request so that we may send this over to Ranking Member Feinstein and Chairman Graham. We have already notified Ranking Member Feinstein as well as the other members on the Judiciary Committee.

This is a serious matter that cannot be disregarded or minimized. There is a problem with this candidate's application and it will be an embarrassment if this is not immediately investigated and full transparency is not exercised.

Re: Thomas Barber, Judicial Nominee

Dear Mr. Lopez-Cantera,

Pursuant to the email exchanges we had on February 22, 2019, please consider my official request for you to provide to me with the application form and supporting documents submitted by Judge Thomas Barber in connection with his application for the vacant judicial seat in Middle District of Florida.

In your email, you indicated that a Chapter 119 request was inapplicable to judges in the State of Florida despite the fact that the Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Commission, (the "Commission"), was formed under the laws of the State of Florida. I then converted my request to obtain these documents to a FOIA request and then you failed to respond to me.

We have information that Judge Thomas Barber falsely answered Question #21 on the Application Form for Judicial Nominating Commission. We also have information that Judge Thomas Barber made material omissions in his application. We are not interested in the financial information that Judge Barber may have disclosed on his application and we are not opposed to a redacted form of the application in areas where there may be financial and other private information which may require redaction.

But we are opposed to redaction of any portion of the answer to Question #21 as well as other answers which do not relate to the judicial candidate's finances or personal identifying information.

You have already acknowledged that you are in possession and custody and control of these documents and that if we told you what the false misrepresentation was, you would forward to the appropriate office in D.C. However, we have a right to see the application and the supporting documents ourselves and request that you immediately release to us a properly redacted copy of the application submitted by Judge Thomas Barber to the Commission.

This is a request pursuant to 5 U.S.C § 552, ("FOIA").

We agree to pay for the cost of these copies.

If you refuse to provide this information, you must advise us in writing and indicate the applicable exemption.

Sincerely,

Joshua Statton
